

WEEKLY HOME STUDY PACKAGE - WEEK 2 (12/07/21 – 16/07/21)

Subject	ENGLISH	Year/Level	11
Strand	WRITING AND SHAPING
Sub-strand	1.1 – Literature - Short Stories
Content Learning Outcome	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Recall the major points from the stories studied.Comprehend the question and analyse the key points to be included in the essay.Plan and write the essay.

Solution

Title: The Wasteland

Author: Alan Paton

Ajaiyi and the Witch Doctor

Amos Tutuola

Plan

Paragraph 1 – Introduction

- Important messages are conveyed by writers which usually have relevance to other societies.
- Alan Paton in The Wasteland and Amos Tutuola in Ajaiyi and the Witch Doctor also depict significant messages to readers.
- This essay will discuss messages conveyed and its relevance.

Paragraph 2

- Messages conveyed in The Wasteland
- Treachery and betrayal and youth crime.
- Freddy was a youth involved in youth crime. He tried to rob his own father for a few dollars.

Paragraph 3 - Relevance

- Children are found betraying the love and trust of their parents; parents are abandoned as well.
- Rise in youth crime in our society.

Paragraph 4

- Messages in Ajaiyi and the Witch Doctor
- Betrayal and struggle for survival
- Ajaiyi is betrayed by the Witch Doctor when he took advantage of his innocence.
- Ajaiyi tried diligently to work hard and get rid of his poverty.

Paragraph 5 – Relevance

- innocent people in our society are often taken advantage of by others
- There is extreme poverty in some cases in our society.
- Many struggle throughout life to overcome poverty and eventually die in poverty like Ajaiyi's father.

Paragraph 6 – Conclusion

- Authors were successfully able to convey the messages through their stories.
- These messages are indeed relevant to our society.