Poetry

Refer to the two poems from either one of the two themes Culture or Education to answer the following:

	THEME: EDUCATION
Poem/ Poet	Booked Future Celo Kulagoe	He Always Anonymous
1. Main idea (how it relates to students)	Importance of books. (1m) There is no escape from books. You will use a book at any time of your life (school/religious book/ workplace). Books play an important role in one's life.(1m)	Individuality. (1m) One has to be sensitive when dealing with children. There is a need to show appreciation for the children's effort and encouragement to boost their morale and self-confidence. (1m)
Quotation	Books, books, book This quotation is in shape of stairs and shows that books are important in every stage of our lives (1m)	'Why don't you draw something like Ken's drawing?' This quotation shows that there was no room for the persona to be himself. He had to be like all the others hence crushing his individuality (1m)
2. Reason it should be studied at year 11	Reason 1 It is relevant to year 11 as it accurately describes how books determine the lives of students in the sense that its utilization or a lack of it may either benefit or impede a child's future. (1m) Reason 2 Students should know that wherever they go, their life is directed by books. Love them or hate them, there is no getting away from books. (1m)	Reason 1 This should be studied at year 11 because its message is appropriate for the students at this age as this is the level, they would be deciding their career subject's exploration. (1m) Reason 2 Students must study this poem because it helps them understand and appreciate their uniqueness in the sense that their interests, and capabilities may not always be the same with those at their age level.
